BOOM IN THE EAST

CLEM MOORE RETURNS WITH TALES OF PROSPERITY EVERYWHERE

Clem Moore, of Moore & Stoddard, who left Glendale June 27 for the East on business, returned Thursday. In the course of his journey, which was chiefly taken in the interest of his agency of the Toledo Floor Furnace, he visited Toledo, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio, Pittsburg, Pa., and Wheeling, W. Va. Everywhere throughout the great Ohio valley he found unceasing activity in every line of business.

"The great lack in the East is labor," said Mr. Moore. "Wherever I went I found that unskilled labor was in demand; while skilled men were not only busy but even working overtime. No one who wants to work need be out of a job in the Ohio valley. Toledo is booming. There the demand for labor is insistent. Many of the wagons passing through the streets have signs, "Laborers Wanted." All the skilled workmen are busy. The great Toledo industry is the Willys-Overland automobile factory. It is running full time and the workmen are getting the highest wages.

"Close to the Willys-Overland are other manufactories of accessories. These are all busy. The lake front is as busy as usual. It is the great ore shipping port and thence coal is also reshipped to Duluth. Cleveland I visited only for a brief time, but during that time I saw that the city was prosperous and busy. The boom in business is everywhere. All the way down from Pittsburg to Wheeling, W. Va., the hum of business is heard.

"The steel mills in East Liverpool, Ohio, are busy making munitions of all kinds. They are at work night and day. They can't get men enough. Everybody is working except those who are independent enough to do without it or the man who wouldn't work under any conditions.

"All this prosperity has resulted in a remarkable independence. In the stores business is rushing at such a rate that it is often difficult to get attended to. I found even the Chinese laundries independent. They have so much work they don't care whether they get more or not. In one laundry the Chinese proprietor wouldn't take time to rise to talk about my laundry. 'Leave it,' he cried. 'When will I get it?' I asked. 'Fliday,' said the laconic Chink. 'That's too late for me,' I ventured to say. 'Take um 'way,' said the celestial. I tried another laundry and urged that the work be done 'special.' They said they would try. When I called the next day for it it was still lying in the basket where it had been placed. I brought it back to Glendale unlaundered.

"I ran into the warm weather when I got East and it lasted all the time I was there; nor did I get out of it until I reached Denver. As an example of the wages men are earning just now back East it may be instanced that from Proctor, W. Va., to Benwood, W. Va., a distance of 25 miles, men go to work, paying $1 a day for the trip, starting in the morning at 5:30 and getting home about 6 p. m., working 6 hours a day.

"During my stay in Toledo I was appointed sole agent for the Toledo Floor Furnace, for the Pacific coast, having all the territory from Vancouver to San Diego. The company gave me a five years' contract for this territory.

"Preparedness is everywhere in the East. In Toledo I saw a parade of 60,000 people. The Willys-Overland auto company was the big feature in the parade and the Toledo Computing Scale company was a good second. Everywhere the people talk 'California' and all hope to come here some day."

RAILWAY INTERCHANGE

It was announced some time ago that an arrangement had been reached by which an interchange and optional route had been agreed upon by the Southern Pacific and the Pacific Electric railway. The Pacific Electric will now handle the passengers and baggage of the Southern Pacific and in addition there will be sold Southern Pacific tickets to points throughout the East at all the regularly established ticket agencies of the Pacific Electric. The public has been slow to appreciate the convenience of this arrangement; but in time it is certain that residents in Glendale will come to understand it and to use it. If you are contemplating a trip East or have friends coming from the East, consult your local Pacific Electric-Southern Pacific agent.

RUNS FOR CONGRESS

LEWIS L. LOSTUTTER IS A CANDIDATE FOR THE NINTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Lewis L. Lostutter of Pomona, Cal., regular Republican candidate for congress for the Ninth Congressional district, paid a visit to the Glendale Evening News, Thursday, and also made a partial canvass of the city. Mr. Lostutter has the assurance of support from a large section of the citizens of Pomona and all over the district he is getting gratifying encouragement. He feels that he is making considerable headway in his campaign and has just the sufficient amount of confidence in his own merit to feel that with hard work he should be able to attain the coveted seat in congress.

Mr. Lostutter has many points in his favor. He is a Republican and Republicans are confident that there is going to be a Republican wave in November that will bear into office on its crest every one who rejoices in that name. He is a resident of Pomona, which, up to this point has modestly kept in the background when high office has been in question. Mr. Lostutter thinks it is time that Pomona had a chance to share in the best fruit of public service.

It will not be for lack of experience that Mr. Lostutter will be reproached. He has been active in politics all his life. In 1896 he was a delegate to the Republican National convention at St. Louis, and supported McKinley and Hobart. In 1900 he was a delegate to the Republican National convention at Philadelphia and supported McKinley and Roosevelt. In 1916 he was a delegate to the Republican National convention at Chicago and supported Hughes and Fairbanks.

At present Mr. Lostutter is an Assemblyman for the 68th district of California and has been faithful and diligent in his duties at Sacramento. At the primaries, Aug. 29, 1916, he hopes to be chosen as Republican candidate for Congress for the Ninth Congressional district of California. His long political services are one of the grounds of his claim to this office; his knowledge of the practical work of the legislature of the state should qualify him for the technical duties of the congressional office.

Mr. Lostutter has been an intimate friend of Mr. C. W. Young of Rock Glen avenue, Eagle Rock, recently a member of the board of school directors of the Glendale Union High School.

Perhaps Mr. Lostutter's strongest qualification for this office is that on which he insists most—he is a business man. His business methods have made him a valuable member of the legislature and have given him prestige on various committees. It is quite common to send lawyers and landowners, and agents of syndicates to congress. It would seem that a slight infusion of business men would be a good thing for that body.

Mr. Lostutter is a business man of high qualities. He is genial and affable. He gets along easily with all sorts and conditions of men. He has that knowledge of men that enables him to get their confidence and make friends of them. With an easy address behind which is a fund of practical knowledge he manages to secure attention and inspire belief in his own powers.

His opinions on tariff legislation are worthy of consideration at this time and his support of tariff legislation that would have some of the earmarks of wisdom about it would be valuable. His business sense should prove of the greatest service in the coming tariff reorganization that is inevitable after the war is over and a new United States congress has been elected.

GERMAN COUNTER ATTACKS REPULSED

FRENCH HURL BACK TEUTONS IN DISORDER WITH VERY HEAVY LOSSES IN SOMME REGION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, July 21.—Heavy German attacks were launched this morning against the recent gains made by the French on both sides of the Somme. The French, however, had done some quick consolidation work there and the Germans were thrown back in great disorder, suffering very heavy losses. Many prisoners were taken. The gains that are being made by the French are equaling those of the first days of the offensive.

FIERCE FOREST FIRE IN SONOMA MOUNTAINS

CONFLAGRATION SPREADS OVER LARGE AREA DESPITE EFFORTS OF FIVE HUNDRED TO STAY IT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SANTA ROSA, Cal., July 21.—Five hundred men and boys are fighting the forest fire in the Sonoma mountains. The blaze has assumed the dimensions of a conflagration and is sweeping the county in the vicinity of the Sonoma mountains. The fire has spread far up the mountains and is so fierce that attempts to check it have failed. All efforts are now being made to limit its area.

MEXICO APPOINTS THREE COMMISSIONERS

REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH MEXICO AND UNITED STATES ARRANGING TERMS FOR CONFERENCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MEXICO CITY, July 21.—It is likely that Mexico's representatives in the conference to be held regarding the conditions on the borders of the United States and Mexico will be Roberto Pasqueri, Luis Cabria and Alberto Tani. Acting Secretary Polk had a long consultation with Eliseo Arredondo, ambassador-designate of the government of Mexico, this morning. It is thought that all the stipulations of the United States for the conference will be agreed to.

LOUIS FORTINE HANGED AT SACRAMENTO

CONFESSED MURDERER OF PETER FURER AND HIS WIFE AND CHILD EXPIATES HIS CRIME

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN QUENTIN, July 21.—Louis Fortine, the ranch hand who confessed to having murdered Peter Furer, Sarah Furer, his wife, and their baby, was hanged here this morning. Fortune was intensely stupid and did not seem to realize the enormity of his crime. As he had no money no attempt was made to save him from the death penalty, although the man was plainly a defective and probably insane.

VESSEL FROM THE UNITED STATES FALLS PREY TO GERMAN SUBMARINE BOATS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO SHOCKED BY BATHING SUITS

OILED SILK GARMENTS VOTED IMMODEST BY CRITICS—CIVIC AUTHORITIES MAY INTERFERE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, July 21.—Quite a furore has been caused here in many circles over the latest thing in bathing costumes. The fashionable modistes are now exhibiting bathing suits of oiled silk, which are said to be as transparent as glass. It is stated that the civic authorities have been approached to prevent the sale of these articles, but it is doubtful if they will interfere. The agitation is spreading throughout the church community.

GLENDALE TRUSTEES

CONTINUE GLENDALE AVE. IMPROVEMENT PROCEEDINGS AT REGULAR MEETING

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the City of Glendale was held at the city hall, Thursday evening, July 20, at 7:45. There were present J. S. Thompson, president of the board, Trustees Charles Grist, R. M. Jackson, F. L. Muhleman, G. B. Woodberry; T. W. Watson, city manager; J. C. Sherer, city clerk; W. E. Evans, city attorney; Edward M. Lynch, city engineer; H. B. Lynch, manager public service department; G. H. Herald, city marshal.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

An application was read from Alfa H. Young for permission to operate a motor bus, and the same being approved by the city manager, was, on motion of Trustee Woodberry, granted.

The city manager reported that Mr. H. P. Coker wishes to install large scales on Maryland avenue in front of his hay barn. On motion of Trustee Grist the matter was referred to the public works committee and the city manager to make report upon the same at the next meeting.

The city manager also reported that Mr. Coker wishes to establish an auto repair shop in connection with his ice plant upon Third street, principally for work upon his own machines, but with the privilege of doing outside work. On motion of Trustee Grist, the permit was granted.

The city engineer reported that no protests had been received in regard to the improvement of Glendale avenue north of First street, and presented resolution of intention to improve said street.

On motion, Resolution Number 919, "A Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale ordering certain improvements to be made on a portion of Glendale avenue in said city," was taken up for reading. On motion of Trustee Grist, the same upon being read was adopted by unanimous vote.

The city clerk reported that Mr. Peters, president of the Tropico board of trustees had called him up upon the telephone and requested that he bring before the board the matter of the City of Glendale bearing a part of the expense of moving the Pacific Electric tower at the crossing of the Pacific Electric and Southern Pacific railroad. The matter was discussed informally, but no action taken.

The report of the librarian for the year ending June 30th, 1916, was presented to the board.

The board adjourned at 8:50 p. m.

GIRLS' SEWING CIRCLE

The girls present were Agnes Baxter, Doris Packer, Florence Hollingsworth, Marjory Sherman, Ruth Ward, Ethel Wilson, Helen Dimmick, Arma Hollis, Alice Chandler and Dorothy Sherman. After an hour of sewing a business meeting was held and an organization was formed. Agnes Baxter was elected president; Doris Packer, vice president; Dorothy Sherman, secretary and treasurer. The Girls' Sewing Circle was the name chosen for the club. Mrs. Sherman takes charge of the meetings. After another pleasant hour of sewing during which the reading of "The Secret Garden" was continued, the girls adjourned to the school court and enjoyed games. Refreshments were served and plans made for the next meeting.

Girls of any age are welcome in this circle. Bring any sewing, fancy or plain or crocheting. The circle meets once each week, every Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the Pacific Avenue school.

SISTERS REUNITED

The home of City Trustee C. H. Henry of 504½ Brand boulevard, Tropico, is the scene of a very happy reunion at the present time. Mr. Henry's mother, Mrs. M. A. Henry, who makes her home with him, is entertaining her two sisters and a niece from Mt. Calm, Texas. The sisters have not been together for twenty-eight years and naturally the reunion is a very happy one. The guests are Mrs. Laura Sanderson and her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Cook and Mrs. M. P. Coates, all of Mt. Calm.

COST OF A GOVERNOR

SAYS OUR NEXT U. S. SENATOR SHOULD BE FROM SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Editor News:

I congratulate the "News" upon its first page editorial in Wednesday's issue asking by what authority the governor of the state, who was elected by the people to serve four years as governor, is now planning to lay aside that office, confer it by his own act upon another person and step into another position, if possible. Until two years ago the state constitution, an old fashioned unprogressive document, declared that "No governor of the state while in office shall be elected U. S. senator." This was amended two years ago by the people of the state, however, taking off that restriction. It was said at that time that this was done to favor Governor Johnson's higher political aspirations, and the event seems to testify to this. If this is the fact, it becomes evident that when elected governor two years ago he did not expect to serve out his term.

In this connection the cost of maintaining a governor should be of interest to taxpayers. The following figures are taken from the Appropriation Act of 1915:

Appropriations for Executive and Administrative Department
(67th and 68th Fiscal Years)

Salary of Governor	$20,000.00
Private Secretary	10,000.00
Executive Secretary	7,200.00
Stenographer	4,000.00
Messenger	3,000.00
Stenographer (another)	3,000.00
Chauffeur	3,000.00
Special Contingent expenses (secret service) exempt from provision of secs. 433 and 672 Penal Code	10,000.00
For Postage, etc., traveling and contingent expenses, governor's office (exempt from secs. 433 and 672	10,000.00
For support of governor's residence (exempt from 433 and 672)	17,500.00
For printing, etc., governor's office	1,500.00
For salary of watchman, governor's mansion	2,400.00

These appropriations total $90,000. No wonder we can "point with pride" to the fact that we have the most expensive state government of any state in the union!

Sections 433 and 672 herein referred to are provisions requiring the state board of control and the state controller to approve expenditures. It will be noticed therefore that the two sums of $10,000 each and the one of $17,500 are appropriated for the governor's use without the requirement of any accounting for the same. The same clause of the constitution that fixes the governor's salary, very virtuously states that he shall receive "no perquisites" in any form and further that no clerk in his employ shall receive "more than $1800 per annum," these provisions applying to all offices enumerated in the section. The governor's mansion at Sacramento is occupied only a portion of the time and it might be supposed that there should be no necessity for providing a watchman outside of the large appropriation for keeping house for a governor who spends much of his time outside the state doing politics.

The question the people of Southern California are interested in in this connection, is the making of a senator. It has been an unwritten law for years past that one of our United States senators should be from Southern California. Do the people in this section who favor making Governor Johnson senator, realize that if they should succeed, both of California's representatives in the upper house of Congress would be Northern men taken from the restricted section around San Francisco bay? The writer of this concedes that we might be making a good change of governors, but would insist that our next senator be taken from Southern California.

—J. C. SHERER.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1916

PROHIBITION OF CORRUPT PRACTICES

This is the era of prohibition of everything. It used to be cast up to the Germans that nearly everything in their delightful country was "verboten" (forbidden). It was forbidden to step off the wrong end of the car, to play the piano in apartment houses after hours; and so on. As a matter of fact most of the German regulations were very sensible and were ecquiesced in by the people themselves. Now it is proposed to forbid a great many things in this country the forbidding of which may or may not work a change for the better.

Senator Owen, of Oklahoma has introduced a bill which places rigid restrictions on money spending by candidates for office. This has gone through the House and with the support of the administration is to be pushed through the Senate so as to become operative for this year's political campaign. Under this drastic measure one cannot buy a cigar for an old-time constituent.

Those who advocate this measure say that it makes impossible the slush funds, jackpots and expenditures out of the reach of the ordinary man. Candidates illegally elected are subject to a fine of $10,000, imprisonment of not less than a year and in the case of a candidate for office illegally elected, under its provisions—disqualification.

This sweeping measure forbids candidates to promise offices in return for support. It limits expenditures to the costs of meetings, literature and other specified items. Corporations or their officers must not contribute to a campaign fund. Money must not be imported into a congressional district to affect the congressional election.

Newspapers are forbidden to run eulogies of candidates without labelling them as paid ads if they have been paid for. It is also forbidden that anyone should withdraw ads or patronage from a newspaper because of a political stand. A President of the United States may not have more than $50,000 spent on his nomination; a vice-president is limited to $25,000. A senator may spend $5000 for nomination or election; a congressman $2500. In addition, the national committees may spend $400,000 for their Presidential tickets, and the national congressional committees the same amount. National officers are criminally liable if more is spent.

No more than $50 may be spent by any individual for a candidate, acting for himself alone. When individuals organize into clubs they must register with the clerk of the house of representatives; keep a public account of all funds received and paid out and twice before and after election file these expense accounts at Washington.

No individual may spend more than $5000, whether as an individual or club member or as both. Anyone found guilty must be imprisoned for one year. Witnesses for the State are granted immunity. Each person who handles, receives or pays out money illegally under this act is individually criminally responsible.

Shades of Mark Hanna! Is it come to this? Why there will be no living through a political campaign in comfort if this bill should pass. You can imagine the chagrin of the old-time boss as he reads the provisions of this bill. The only question in the minds of practical politicccians with regard to this wonderful measure is whether it will not create false witness and a flood of perjury and a million tricks and contrivances to evade it.

LIFE IN THE TRENCHES

At the time of the Russo-Japanese war every nation of any importance on the face of the globe had its military observer at the front. The courtesies of Japan and Russia were allowed to those observers. The military observers attached to the Japanese army were one day complimenting Marquis Ito on the wonderful completeness of military detail that enabled the Japanese to carry out their plans almost to the day and hour for which they had been arranged. "That is nothing," said the courtly marquis. "These things we have learned from yourselves. We have taken points from the British, the Germans, the French, the Italians, and there is nothing original with us on that side of the campaign thorough as our methods may be. What we pride ourselves on is our medical arrangements. The deaths from typhoid and enteric have been reduced to a minimum and the hospital arrangements are such as to reduce the deaths from infected wounds. Our medical men accompany our regiments, select their camping places and placard every water source with a statement that it is either good or bad. The consequence has been that we have had the smallest percentage of deaths from disease that any nation has ever had in war."

At the time these words may not have seemed to have had much effect, but as time went on the armies of Europe adopted such methods and their value is shown every day in the trenches in Europe. Such a camp life as is being lived in the European trenches would have been impossible fifty years ago without an enormous proportion of deaths from disease. Today enteric and typhoid are almost unknown.

Think of a line of 240 miles of trenches in which several million men have been living for the better part of two years and yet everything is sanitary and healthful. Every arrangement is made for the relief and health of the soldier. This big double city of several millions with its countless ramifications throughout the different fronts and its adjuncts on the sea shows a lower death rate from disease than the cities of the various nations.

It is almost impossible to realize what this trench city means. Take the 100 miles of British trenches that stretch away on the western front in endless zigzags. Imagine going to look for a friend you had not seen for years along that front. You would meet thousands upon thousands of men you had never met. You would get lost and ask directions. Finally, perhaps you would find yourself in a long tunnel leading down to a deep dugout in a first-line trench. Down this hole you would find your friend after a journey anyway from forty to eighty miles miles or, perhaps a hundred.

On these lines are to be found packinghouses multiplied a hundred times, a bakery on the same scale, a wholesale grocery, a shoeshop, or a foundry. They are all there. The arts and the crafts, music and song, the work of the brain and the work of the hand are all in the trenches—multiplied a hundred times from anything you have ever seen.

The field hospitals are spotlessly clean. Everything is sanitary. The trenches are even warmed in wet weather and pumped dry. They are paved with wood and are really as comfortable as can be. The proof of their sanitary character is the fact that the death rate from the old zymotic diseases and from infected wounds has been reduced to a minimum.

DEATH OF MRS. HARRIETT BAKER MATTHEWS

Mrs. Harriett Baker Matthews, mother of Mrs. Harry A. Wilson, 200 S. Centray avenue, died in Denver, Colorado, Thursday, July 20, rather suddenly, it is supposed. The news was conveyed to Mrs. Wilson in a telegram this morning. Mrs. Matthews had made her home with her daughter, at 200 S. Central avenue, for some time past. She was 65 years of age and had been in excellent health all her life. Recently she had not been feeling very well but did not regard her trouble as anything more than passing indisposition. She left Glendale May 31 to pay her annual visit to the East and had planned an extensive trip, intending to go to visit her daughter in New Jersey. She stopped off at Denver and was visiting her numerous friends there when her death occurred in the hotel where she was residing. It is thought that the high altitude of Denver proved too great a strain for her.

Mrs. Matthews was born in 1851, at Farner City, Ill., whither her body will be taken for interment. She leaves a son, G. L. Baker, who resides in Kansas; her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Thomas, of New Jersey, and her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Wilson of 200 S. Central avenue.

AUSTRALIAN ANIMALS IN TOWN

H. E. Royston, 335 S. Orange St., has some curious animals that are well worthy of attention. These animals are natives of Australia and exhibit the peculiarities that mark so many of the wild animals of that unique continent. One is a wallaby. This is a species of kangaroo, a marsupial, or animal that has a wonderfully contrived purse or pocket for carrying its little ones about in safety. Another is a cockatoo. A third is an Austral bear, which has not yet arrived in Glendale.

Dr. Gray, the father of Mrs. Royston, got these animals in the Zoo, in Sydney, Australia. He thought they would make an interesting present for his daughter, Mrs. Roysston. The animals were carefully caged and placed on board the Ventura, an English steamship, which makes the voyage between Sydney and San Francisco. The Ventura arrived in San Francisco June 19. The animals stood the sea voyage well and were great pets of the sailors. They received also every attention from their owner and were in excellent health when they arrived in California.

The wallaby has reconciled himself to his surroundings and may be seen any day in the corral at the rear of the Royston residence on Orange street. It is a most interesting little animal, with all the peculiarities of the kangaroo family. The word wallaby means "little." Though full-grown the wallaby is less than half the size of a full-grown kangaroo.

Cockatoos are by no means uncommon in California. They may be seen in the big aviary in Griffith park. Their beautiful white plumage and their golden crests, which they have the power to erect at will, make them kings among birds of their size. They also learn to speak.

Mr. Royston expects very soon to have the Austral bear shipped to him from San Francisco. This species of bear is peculiar from its diminutive size. It weighs only three pounds. It has hair of a grayish color, soft and silky and curly. It is not unlike a "Teddy bear." It should not be difficult to feed it in Glendale as it is exceedingly fond of eucalyptus leaves.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

The Foothills Tennis club, which has had a most successful season, playing most of the time on the spacious court at the residence of L. C. Brand, has adjourned for the summer.

It is expected that there will be many attractive features at the social to be given Friday evening, in the Central avenue schoolhouse, under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Casa Verdugo Methodist-Episcopal church. The society has been growing steadily and is aggressive and progressive.

Casa Verdugo restaurant is to be the scene of an important gathering and banquet of the Society of Native Sons of California, Los Angeles branch. Dinner will be served at 6. One hundred and twenty-five will be present. The famous De Nubila band will be in attendance. The beautiful grounds of Casa Verdugo are in fine condition just now.

Mrs. Yorba of Casa Verdugo is at present in Pasadena nursing her mother, who has been quite seriously ill for some time.

"THE PRINCE CHAP"

Miss Emma Lee Weiler, the talented impersonator and reader who is to give a reading of "The Prince Chap" at Butler's hall, Friday evening, under the auspices of the First Methodist-Episcopal church, brings with her from Tennessee a first-class reputation as an artist of high attainments. The Johnson City, Tenn., "Staff" says: "Miss Weiler is a charming young artist. Her work is characterized by care, cultivation and charm. Her impersonations are intelligently studied and she appreciates the value of detail. She is a young woman of literary as well as dramatic culture and the works of the master minds are familiar to her."

The Knoxville Journal and Tribune says: "Miss Weiler's selections gave her a splendid opportunity to demonstrate her talent for interpretation of dramatic scenes. The young reader was equal to the task set for her. Her charming personality and exquisite acting added materially to her artistic portrayal of dramatic scenes calling for the best efforts of the real artist."

The East Tennessee State Normal says: "The chapel was packed to its utmost capacity, many having to be turned away from the door for lack of standing room. She won the great audience and held it with unflagging interest to the end. She is great."

DRAMATIC RESCUE SCENE

Observant citizens cannot have failed to notice a new structure that has been erected with marvelous rapidity at the corner of Second street and Howard, within the past week. This building is not particularly substantial and is not intended to be permanent, though it may remain where it is for a long time, and will be the scene of many thrilling adventures. It represents a railroad station and has been built by the Kalem people for moving picture purposes.

On Saturday this building will be the scene of a thrilling railroad episode in the series, "The Hazards of Helen," which is being produced by Mr. Davis' Railroad company, a corps of Kalem actors. The building will take fire but will not be burned down. A thrilling rescue scene will be staged and will probably attract many people Saturday morning. The other section of the Kalem company is still working on "The Girl From 'Friscoe," of which picture "The Gold Plunderers" is being finished.

FAST AEROPLANE

M. Bleriot, the great French constructor of aeroplanes, claims to have turned out a machine that can fly at the rate of 125 miles an hour. It looks like a swallow, it is said, and is called a "Spad." It is a graceful and almost frail-looking biplane.

Those who have seen its flights say that it climbs rapidly into the sky and attains the speed mentioned with ease. On account of its swiftness the "Spad" can be trusted to only the most expert pilots, because, although the speed can be reduced a little, only the most skillful airmen can alight without smashing the machine.

SMALLEST CHURCH

A church, said to be the smallest in the United States, was recently dedicated in New Hampshire. The main auditorium is eighteen by twenty-eight feet, with seats for about seventy persons. In a tiny gallery are seats for eighteen. There is also a vestry and a basement.

LA CANADA

The annual reception of the Thursday Afternoon club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Granger Thursday evening, July 13. The house was beautifully decorated in pink roses and ferns. A very interesting program was given. Mr. and Mrs. Sweetzger of Alhambra sang several duets. Mrs. Cuthbert also sang and these songs were very beautifully rendered. Mrs. Dr. Scott gave a very interesting talk on the "Land of the Working Elephant." Miss Ada Fisher also sang several selections. The evening was enjoyed by everyone present. At the close of the evening's entertainment delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Henrietta Horne entertained at her home Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in sewing and doing fancy work. A very enjoyable time was spent. Miss Horne served delicious refreshments later in the afternoon. Among those that enjoyed Miss Horne's hospitality were Mrs. Max Green, Mrs. Hubert Bentley and the Misses Dewey, Rowena Green, Aldine Norton, Margaret Van Degrift, Frances Jewett, Lillian Selleck, Gladys Granger, Katheryne Green, Clara Armstrong and also Dorothy Hunt of Glendale.

John Dull, former resident of La Canada, passed away at his home in Santa Paula June 6. Mr. Dull was born in Paris, Portage County, Ohio, May 21, 1843, and spent the early part of his life in the eastern states. He was a volunteer for the Union army in the time of the struggle for freedom. He has also been a great helper in the time of need. Mr. Dull was very fond of music, and had an excellent voice. He was a member of the church choir at the church where he attended. He was a Mason and was highly esteemed by his brothers of the order. He is survived by a widow, a son, Oscar S. Dull of Wallace, Idaho, and two daughters, Mrs. Graham F. Putman of Los Angeles and Mrs. Julian A. Knight of Twin Bridges, Montana. He also has two brothers, William and Daniel of Los Angeles, and three sisters, Mrs. F. Wenk of Los Angeles, Mrs. A. T. Hubbard of Neola, Iowa, and Mrs. Frank Fry of Rouseville, Pa. Mr. Dull was a great favorite among his fellow citizens and he will be greatly missed by everyone that knew him.

Mr. Towne has sold eight acres of his almond land. This ground was good and his almond orchard was a well-kept piece of land.

Mrs. Stickney has returned from a few days visit to the San Diego fair and other places of interest.

Mr. William Metzger is now working in Compton.

The motion pictures entitled "Stop Thief," shown in the La Crescenta auditorium Tuesday evening, was enjoyed by a large crowd.

One of the most delightful events of the past week was the marriage of Miss Mae Haase Andregg to Gordon Farrar Blackwood of Glendora. The wedding took place at Onodarka Ranch, the beautiful home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Baldridge. The house is Aztec in design and the appointments were suggestive of primitive Indian ideas. The ceremony was performed on the roof, canopied by "the wide arches of the heavens," in which the moon played hide and seek among the clouds. Electric globes were sheathed in bell-shaped shades. An aisle was outlined with unique posts, each bearing a basket filled with blossoms of Yucca. The tall basket handles were tied with bows of white gauze from each was suspended one of the light bells.

Music of ukulele and guitar was heard from the distance, the musicians under the trees, about the house, the first part of the evening and later in the patio.

In the bridal party were Mrs. Frank H. Ohrmund, the bride's sister, matron of honor; Miss Dorothea Fouke, maid of honor; and the Misses Mabel Patton, Elizabeth Streeter and Elizabeth Purlo, bridesmaids. Henry Waters of Glendora was best man, with James Riddel, Wayne Ferguson, Morse Cooper and Frank H. Ohrmund ushers. The bridesmaids were charming in green meteor, filmy tulle and silver lace, each a shade deeper than the former and carrying a bouquet of roses. The matron of honor was lovely in a gown of delicate yellow. She, too, carried roses. The maid of honor was girlishly beautiful in the daintiest pink chiffon. The honor maid's tall shepherd's crook topped with a shower of rosebuds completed the pretty costume.

The bride was never handsomer. The short bridal gown was of tulle with silver etching on the edges and about bodice. A long train of tulle was edged with silver and was fastened coronet fashion to the hair. A shower of brideroses and lillies of the valley with maidenhair fern was carried.

Mrs. Baldridge, the bride's mother, was stunning in real lace over chiffon, edged with sable bands.

The guests were served supper at a table over 200 feet in length and spread in a "wickiup" arched with greenery and brilliantly illuminated. The bride's cake ornamented the head of the table. It was a wonderful work of art. It looked like a mountain of snow; at the bottom was the state highway from which led a road on which automobiles were traveling. The road was ornamented with the usual signs, "Go Slow," "Danger," "Curves;" at the top was La Crescenta.

For this wedding of more than usual interest guests came from Los Angeles, Glendora, Sierra Madre and Pasadena; to guide them a string of orange lights was arranged along the La Crescenta road.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackwood left later in the evening for their wedding journey in a shower of rice from long stemmed rose cups provided for the purpose. They will make their home in Glendora. Mr. Blackwood is a Yale man, while his bride attended Throop Academy.

SUNLAND

The barbecue given by the Chamber of Commerce last Saturday evening was a great success from every standpoint. The pigs were so nicely cooked and filled full of the finest dressing and nice gravy and it was all eaten up. There was a splendid crowd and everybody had a good time. Several noted speakers were on hand, among them John A. McGroarty, Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, Captain W. T. Helms, John T. Wilson and others who all had a word of good cheer and praise for the Monte Vista valley. The receipts of the evening were $59.00.

Mrs. G. G. Corey, sister of Mrs. L. T. Rowley, who has been very low for some time, died Tuesday evening, about 10 o'clock.

Judge and Mrs. Curtis D. Wilbur were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Wells July 15 and 16 and attended the Chamber of Commerce barbecue in the park Saturday evening. Judge Wilbur was one of the speakers of the evening and his talk was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

BACK FROM YOSEMITE

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hartley-Taylor of Eagledale returned home Monday from their trip through the Yosemite valley. They left with their two daughters in the automobile party along with the Hunchbergers. The party encountered no mishaps and reached Camp Curry in good time. From that point they made extended trips to different points of interest in the valley. They intended to make their way through the upper reaches of the valley and return by the Pomona road, but on attempting to get through that way they found the upper roads blocked. In some places there was more than 25 feet of snow. The season is late. This forced them to return by Modesto and Merced.

"Nothing," said Mrs. Hartley-Taylor, "could equal the beauty and interest of this trip. The most famous points are familiar to everyone through photographs and pictures of every kind; but even these do not convey one-half of the glorious majesty and charm of the valley. There are numerous canyons that are worth exploring. They are all beautiful and weird and impressive.

"The Cameron Thoms were in the valley at the same time as we were. Mr. Thom and Mr. Taylor made a trip along the Tioga road to Aspen valley and in the little stream that runs down there they found the trout swarming. They caught the limit several times. In the streams of the park proper there are very few trout. Our only regret in leaving was that we could not stay longer."

"BACK TO FATHERLAND WITH CAPT. PAUL KOENIG"

To the port of Baltimore I sailed
With my crew from Fatherland,
In the Deutschland,
'Neath the flag of Fatherland
To the country called neutral land.
I will leave you soon neutral land
With my crew!
How my colors bravely flew
In neutral land,
Farewell neutral land
I'm off to Fatherland;
Under the black, white and red.

CHURCH OF GRINDSTONES

The minister of a church in a Pennsylvania town found use for a heap of old grindstones lying in the factory yard of a big manufacturing plant. They formed a small mountain, and the company could find no use for them.

It so happened that the minister needed material for the building of his proposed new church. He obtained permission to take the stones, and he and a few members of his congregation worked for months sorting out the stones and carting them away. With a little trimming up they made most excellent building blocks. More than 2,500 of the old grindstones were used in the building, which is eighty-seven feet by forty-three feet in dimensions. The church was recently dedicated.
